

KFB Foundation for Agriculture Grant Application Form - Second Half 2010 (July – December) Deadline—May 15, 2010

What kinds of programs are funded?

KFB Foundation for Agriculture grants will be considered for the following kinds of programs:

- Agriculture Awareness programs directed at the urban and suburban population, e.g., children, adults and teachers to improve their perceptions and increase their understanding of agriculture and its importance to the Kansas economy and their daily lives
- Agriculture Leadership programs for key segments of the rural population to improve their leadership skills and increase their involvement in leadership positions to benefit agriculture and rural communities
- Agriculture Advocacy programs designed to address current issues with local, county and state legislators and officials, and
- Agriculture Education, Management and Safety programs to enhance the skills and quality of life of Kansas farmers and ranchers.

What types of requests are ineligible?

- Administrative or overhead costs and meals
- Activities that are promotional rather than educational in nature, e.g. advertising (unless advertising the activity), sponsorships, county fairs, non-farm safety programs, signage, prizes, giveaways, travel
- Activities or programs that do not advance the KFB Foundation for Agriculture's goals
