

Babysitting Fun

(Having fun Babysitting without watching a video)

Get all the kids lined up by the bathroom mirror and make faces. See who can make the scariest, silliest, craziest and ugliest faces.

Bring some old clothes and play dress up.

Bring an old sheet and make a tent with the couch or a table and some chairs.

Do a dance recital in the kitchen or at a door opening. Pretend the door opening is a stage. Or pretend that you're all famous singers or actors and perform in front of everyone else. Be sure to clap a lot!

Go outside and look at the clouds. Describe them to each other and try to get the others to see which one you're looking at.

Draw or color. Use watercolors or markers (washable, of course!).

Play twenty questions.

Play name that tune.

Play Zoo. Have one person pick an animal and act like it while the others guess what animal the person picked.
