

wheatfacts

There are about 7.6 million acres of wheat planted in Kansas each year. Think about 5.8 million football fields, all being planted to wheat!

– United States Department of Agriculture

Half of the wheat grown in Kansas is used in the United States; the other half is exported to other countries.

– Kansas Wheat

Each American consumes about 134 pounds of wheat flour per year.

– Kansas Wheat

On average, Kansas is the largest wheat producing state in the U.S.

– Kansas Wheat

Kansas is No. 1 in the U.S. for flour milling.

– Kansas Wheat

Flour milling adds $1,365,782,756 to the Kansas economy each year.

– Kansas Department of Agriculture