Entry Form & Application Guidelines

- Do not use the applicant's name, the name of their town or county, or any names that may bring about the recognition or identification of the applicant beyond the entry form. The written versions of the application have a search feature to locate any identifiers.
- The entry form and application should be completed in first person narrative (i.e. I, me, we, us), but proper names of the applicant(s) may not be used. Couple applications should follow these instructions: For personal statements, put (A1) or (A2) at the beginning of the paragraph/sentence to denote which applicant is “speaking,” and for joint statements, simply use the word “we.” Applicants must use (A1)/(A2) to denote each applicant’s involvement for all of question 2b and 10-12.

- The Financial Success section must be typed; handwritten financial forms will be disqualified. Should the competitor move on to the national competition, they may be asked to provide a notarized version of this.
- Do not use abbreviations or acronyms, unless it has been spelled out once with the abbreviation in parentheses behind it. For example, the United States Department of Education (USDE). AFBF, KFB FB and YF&R are acceptable to use throughout the application.
- It will be up to the judges’ discretion to deduct points if applicants include activities before they were 18.

Note: Disregarding the guidelines will result in the disqualification of the application.

VIRTUAL CONVENTION: If KFB is unable to hold the 2027 Convention in-person for any reason, the competitive events will be held virtually, and all applicants should be made aware of this possibility prior to their application. If the competition will be virtual, all contestants will be given the opportunity to withdraw their application for 2027 to ensure eligibility for future years.

Judging

- The entry form and application of each entry will be coded upon receipt by KFB. The applicant’s name and state will not be revealed to the judges until judging is completed.
- Judging is based on the application sent to KFB by the applicant. An interview during the KFB YF&R Leaders Conference determines final scores, rank and winners.
- A panel of qualified judges will select the state winners.
- Interviews will be up to 20 minutes in length and are intended to evaluate the competitor’s command of the farm/ranch business and financials, familiarity of the contents of the application and appreciation for the value of Farm Bureau (see rubric document). In addition to the five (5) points allocated for the interview, judges may alter scores/ranks from other sections based on what they learn in the interview.
- During the interview process, only the named applicant(s) on the entry form is permitted into the interview, and the applicant(s) should refrain from using the name of their state or county, or any names that may bring about the recognition or identification of their state.
