

Sunflower Fun Facts

There are more than sixty different kinds of sunflowers growing in the United States, Europe, Japan and Russia.

Sunflowers turn to follow the sun until they bloom.

It only takes 90 - 100 days for a Sunflower plant to mature.

The state flower for Kansas is the Sunflower.

Sunflower roots can grow to a length of nine feet.

Striped sunflowers seeds are eaten while black seeds are used to make oil.

KANSAS FARM BUREAU®
The Voice of Agriculture®

Source:

www.amazingandwied.com

