

Clementine Sentences

Directions:

Have students cut out the sentences and place them in order of the story under the correct ordinal number.

NAME: _____

Pickers wear gloves to protect the fruit.

As the flower dies, a tiny berry begins to grow.

The clementines are heavy and full of juice.

Clementines are washed and packed in boxes.

Trees are full of sweet-smelling, waxy flowers.

Peel the clementine.

The clementines turn from yellow to orange.

The clementines turn from green to yellow.

Pop the juicy pieces into your mouth and bite!

1.

(paste sentence here)

2.

(paste sentence here)

3.

(paste sentence here)

4.

(paste sentence here)

5.

(paste sentence here)

6.

(paste sentence here)

7.

(paste sentence here)

8.

(paste sentence here)

9.

(paste sentence here)