

Farm Facts

A single American farmer feeds 155 people.

Farmers receive only 16 cents out of every dollar spent on food. In 1980, farmers received 31 cents.

Conservation tillage reduces soil loss while using less energy. The acreage using this practice has increased 46% since 1982.

Today's farmers produce 262% more food with fewer inputs, compared to 1950.

2.2 million farms dot America's rural landscape.